

GLOBUS®

Every journey tells a storySM

Canterbury Cathedral

Apollo Temple - Corinth

Journey with Promise Keepers to the lands of your spiritual heritage.

Imagine standing in the footsteps of those who have impacted your faith's beliefs so deeply. Now is the time to bring the history of your faith to life and experience these inspirational sights first-hand with the following faith-based vacations. And, to make your vacation more enriching, a Promise Keepers special guest will join you on your journey.*

Trace the footsteps of Apostle Paul May 6 – 16, 2008, on the Footsteps of Apostle Paul vacation, while experiencing the sights and sounds of early Christianity. Journey and cruise to a number of places associated with the missionary journeys of the Apostle and the New Testament. Visit Athens and Mars Hill, where Paul delivered his famous sermon on the "Unknown God", and Corinth where Paul worked as a tent maker. Then embark on a three-night cruise to Mykonos, Rhodes and Kusadasi, Turkey. Among the many highlights is a visit to Patmos Island where the Apostle John wrote the Book of Revelation. Additional places of interest include Veria, Kalambaka and Meteora, Greece.

Journey to England on the Christian England & the World of C.S. Lewis vacation, September 27 – October 6, 2008, and walk in the footsteps of C.S. Lewis. Explore first-hand the lives of John and Charles Wesley, who wrote many beloved hymns of faith including "Hark the Herald Angles Sing." Also, learn about William Carey, John Newton, C.H. Spurgeon and William Cowper who have deeply impacted the history of our faith. Personally experience the sites and sounds associated with the life of C.S. Lewis and his friends such as J.R.R. Tolkien, writer of The Lord of the Rings. In addition, enjoy traditional sightseeing of London, Oxford, York, Milton Keynes and other famed cities while indulging in English culture.

Land pricing for the Footsteps of Apostle Paul vacation starts at $1,836 per person, and land pricing for the Christian England & the World of C.S. Lewis vacation starts at $2,025 per person. Air packages are available. Children eight and older are welcome. For more information, call 866.397.6597, and ask for Promise Keepers 2008 tours. Place your reservation early as space is limited.

Promise Keepers Special guest will be announced at a later date.*