Personal attributes:

1. Is in good standing at a Christian church, with a servant’s heart for leadership
2. Willing to be involved in prayer ministry crossing ethnic and denominational lines
3. Believes in and is committed to the Promise Keepers Seven Promises
4. Strong communication skills, both written and verbal
5. Willing to come under the authority of the Conference Prayer Coordinator and Prayer Room Captain
6. Committed to pray in the Prayer Room at the Conference site during his scheduled time

Pre-Conference responsibilities:

1. Attend and participate in prayer meetings and prayer walking prior to the Conference, and pray for Conference needs
2. Help recruit key intercessors for the Prayer Room, and submit candidates to the Conference Prayer Coordinator
3. Meet with the Prayer Room Captain and discuss guidelines, schedule and agree to support the team. Familiarize yourself with general conference information, invite other intercessors to sign up and commit to prayer
4. This is a good time to minister to each other and pray for your families

Conference weekend:

1. Follow instructions regarding Prayer Room guidelines, prayer assignments, shifts, meals, breaks, etc.
2. Maintain the unity of the room. If you get a sense that something is not right and it can take the team out of the flow of the Spirit, share your concern with the Prayer Room Host/Hostess and/or Prayer Room Captain and they will decide what action to take
3. Take breaks as needed. If you feel the need to be on the move, ask the Prayer Room Captain if he/she can assign you to a different prayer task
4. Do not roam the halls of the arena unless you are on a prayer assignment

5. Be flexible when changes occur in the Prayer Room. Conference needs will arise suddenly. Speakers, staff, and volunteers will come in periodically for prayer. You will be asked to gather to pray. Follow the instructions by the Prayer Captain
6. Changes could be taking place while you are out on a break. If when you return something new is happening, do your best to fit in to what is going on in the room without disrupting the flow of the Spirit
7. Be flexible and be forgiving! Mistakes will be made
8. Reminder: Keep in mind that during the conference, you must be focused on the Conference program, speakers, attendees, PK staff and volunteers. This is not a time to minister to each other. If a need arises, please discuss it with the Prayer Room Captain and/or Prayer Coordinator
